

When sending sensitive data or large amounts of data to BerryDunn please use our secure certified delivery system:

Some file types cannot be emailed for security reasons. Read this page to find out which files cannot be delivered via email.

Some file types are not deliverable via the email system. Most of the file restrictions have been in place for several years but a few have been added to protect the firm from new virus deployment techniques. The current policy is set up to accept and reject files as follows:

We bounce (reject) messages with attached files exceeding 30MB in size.
